

PITTSBURGH, PA
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
CONTACT: RICK GERCAK (412) 515-4544

Smokin' Section is a 5-piece horn-driven band based in Pittsburgh, PA. Founded in 1993, the band built its strong reputation with a powerful dance-oriented mix of old school soul, R&B, funk, classic rock, and blues throughout Pennsylvania, Ohio, West Virginia, and New York.

The band's playlist includes original material, but focuses on crowd-pleasing cover tunes from The Rolling Stones, Stevie Wonder, Stevie Ray Vaughn, Jimi Hendrix, Buddy Guy, Wilson Pickett, Sam and Dave, Chicago, Peter Gabriel, Three Dog Night, and The Doors.

Smokin' Section regularly plays diverse venues like casinos, private events such as reunions and company parties and picnics, outdoor festivals, PNC Park, and showcase clubs and theaters. The band members engage the crowd directly in every set and the band never fails to bring a party. The band never fails to deliver a professional, fast-paced show with no dead spots or awkward pauses.

The band shares vocal duties among Steve Seel on guitar, Rick Gercak on bass, Greg Stegman on sax -- and a rare singing drummer, Matt Kweder. Each set highlights the band's full vocal harmonies and showcases the soloing prowess of Steve and Greg, and Terry Divilbliss on keyboards.